Carter Aiding Communism World Wide

More Acts of Cartercommunism

When trying to figure out a puzzle you must first put all the pieces together. Thus, to discover just how pro-communist Jimmy Carter really is, we must examine exactly what he has done to aid the growth of communism.

Hungary has been given the 1,000 year-old "Crown of St. Stephen," which is the symbol of Hungarian legal authority. Every president since Harry Truman has refused to give this invaluable relic to Hungary as long as the people there remain enslaved under atheistic communism. Despite the fact that Carter risks losing the vote of all captive bloc nations' anti-communist peoples now residing in America, he has gone ahead and recognized the Soviet occupation of Hungary while 60,000 Soviet troops are still stationed there.

Cuban freedom fighters meeting in Chicago charged that Carter was using the FBI to harass their members. The Federation of Cuban Organizations, representing 17 groups proclaimed their right to conduct anti-Castro activities from this country. They charged at a press conference:

"We consider it immoral for the FBI to share information on the activities of anti-communist groups with Fidel Castro. The people of this country may pay their taxes for the FBI to collect information, but not to turn it over to this country's enemies."

Mr. Jose Lamas, spokesman for the Cuban group, and a producer of Spanish-language TV programs in Chicago, stated: "The U.S. has imprisoned a number of Cuban exiles on charges connected with their activities against Castro's communist regime. We Cubans here and the oppressed Cubans on the island have always been good friends of the American people. But Cuban exiles are going to fight for their country. They are going to continue the struggle. We reject and repudiate any understanding or negotiation the Carter Administration may conclude with the tyrant Castro."

Already Carter has granted permission to two charter airlines to carry tourists and businessmen to Cuba. Complete recognition is but weeks or months away. Still, this has in no way softened Castro's anti-American line.

Later the Times replied to criticism of this statement that Cuba was in Africa "only at the invitation of duly constituted African governments, whose independence they support. Cuban advisors do not threaten the independence of other states."

"New York Times" Says Cuban Troops O.K. in Africa

The New York Times is a barometer of left-liberal Jew political opinion in America. That newspaper is owned by the Jew Sulzberger family. On Nov. 29, the Times stated that armed Cuban intervention in Africa does not pose a threat to the free world.

The Times has always been quick to denounce any U.S. aid to any anti-communist country, such as Formosa, South Korea, Chile, or South Africa. They did all they could to turn the American public against our program to use U.S. military forces to save Vietnam from a communist takeover. Now they say it is all right for the communists to send men and arms to forcibly take over African nations. The Times says that any one who criticizes Cuba's activities in Africa is taking "a cheap way to score political points."

Angola has a Russian puppet regime in power because Cuban troops placed them there. Communist murderers took over Ethiopia after killing all their internal opposition. Neither country has any semblance of freedom. Thus, the Times speaks for the viewpoint of both Jews and the Carter Administration which is itself heavily infiltrated with Jew ad-

Israel Is Aiding Ethiopia Defense?

JERUSALEM—

Jerusalem Post reports that Israel is aiding Ethiopia's defense of the Ogaden region at the behest of the United States; was attributed to The Economist, of London. The weekly said that Israel not only trained two Ethiopian divisions, but has supplied Ethiopia with "Russian tanks, armored personnel carriers, rocket-launchers, small arms and ammunition" which she had captured in the Yom Kippur War.

President, Jimmy Carter.

visers, cabinet officers, and department heads. This is why our government has moved so suddenly to the communist side under Jimmy Carter.

Red China is now in line for military defense technology, according to a State Department "Policy Review Memorandum" according to Jewish writer Bernard Weintraub of The New York Times of Jan. 4, 1978. He states that the Pentagon is opposing Carter's move to open up our classified military knowledge to Communist China. Weintraub states that the list of equipment Carter wants to sell includes "underwater listening equipment to detect hostile submarines, components for radar, jet engines, and satellite reconnaissance systems." This has not been given a final O.K., but just give Carter a little more time.

This editor remembers when Carter ran his very first unsuccessful race for Gov. of Georgia. His headquarters in Augusta, Ga. was staffed with Reds. They knew something then that we are just now discovering. The new phenomenon which has taken over our government before our very eyes should be called Cartercommunism. Just look at what Carter is doing to disarm America and his aid to communist powers which continue to take over more countries all over the world. The truth is that Carter actually stands on the communist side. The sooner the people learn this truth, the quicker we can make sure he does not ever regain the nomination of his own party. The most dangerous man in his-

Jimmy Carter Supports Communism

The Soviet Union's military buildup in Africa continues with over 50 cargo ships jammed with arms having passed through the Suez Canal bound for Ethiopia. The air lift brings more equipment to Addis Ababa daily. John H. Trattner, a State Department official who just returned from Ethiopia, said that the city is "swamped with Soviet supplies."

Ethiopia is fighting with Somalia over the Ogaden desert. This is an area populated by people who are historically related to the Somalians. A communist coup seized control of Ethiopia and instituted a brutal and murderous regime. Dead bodies with notes of warning are found strung daily on the streets of Addis Ababa. Somalia expelled the Russians from their base which controls the opening to the Red Sea. Now it is feared that with Soviet training, Ethiopia's nation of 30 million could eventually defeat Somalia, which has only 3 million people. Ethiopia is now using Soviet hardware to counterattack. They could possible drive right through to the sea, thus capturing the former Russian bases on the horn of Africa. From this vantage point, they could control the sea lanes from which America and the Western World receive most of their oil.

During the past three months, stated Trattner, Russia has "substantially increased" its forces in Ethiopia to 800 Soviet advisers and over 1,500 Cuban military personnel. They are now flying the MIGs which are attacking Somalia and landing tank forces on the ground.

Saudi Arabia and Iran have both urged President Carter to send military aid to Somalia, which has already made a formal request for arms. Thus far, Carter is following the same do-nothing policy as Ford, which resulted in the Cuban-Soviet takeover of Angola. On Dec. 28, Somalia President Mohammed Siad Barre said he gave the Shah of Iran a special request for aid, and told a press conference:

"It seems that the United States and some other Western countries have adopted a wait-and-see attitude on what is happening in Africa and the Indian Ocean. We, Iran, and other countries in the area don't think this is a wise attitude. We are seeking arms to defend ourselves. How can you stop missiles? Not with prayers, certainly."

"Is the United States being responsible by adopting a wait-and-see position. We denounce this."

Carter Supports Ethiopian Communists

The mystery of why we do not support the anti-communists in the war may have been answered by the Jew columnist Bernard Gwertzman writing in the New York Times of Dec. 28. He stated that President Carter has withheld aid to anti-communist Somalia because he believes that: "Ethiopia is a victim of Somali aggression." Carter does not care that this is a struggle between communist and anti-communist forces which will affect the security of oil supplies for the Western World. The New York Times article continues, stating that Carter "cannot find that Cuba and Russia are violating international law by aiding Ethiopia." Thus the truth is that Pres. Carter supports a communist victory in Ethiopia. America is in a deteriorating position as the power of the communist forces increases world-wide with no opposition from the United States.

Note on this page the extremely important news report from the Dec. 2 issue of the Jewish Post. It quotes Israel's largest and most influential daily, The Jerusalem Post, as declaring that Israel has joined with the Cubans and the Russians in aiding communist Ethiopia AT CARTER'S REQUEST! In other words, we are using Israeli forces in aiding the communists. This is further proof that communism has not turned against the Jews and that Carter supports communist enslavement of defenseless countries around the world.

There can be little doubt that the most dangerous man in history now occupies the White House. We pray that our nation can survive three more years of megalomaniac Carter. In the meantime, we can expect Soviet forces to swallow up more nations during this period.

tory now occupies the White House. Help awaken others by buying extra copies of this newspaper so that you can help.

Queers Take Over New York City

Below reproduced from N.Y. Press. Mr. Vito Battista's prediction came true.

Battista Fears Koch Will Make It a 'Gay City'

By THOMAS POSTER

Vito Battista, mayoral candidate of the United Taxpayers Party, brought the gay rights bill issue into the campaign Thursday night at a mayoral forum before a packed house of 1,200 at Fort Hamilton HS in Brooklyn.

Noting that Koch is a supporter of the legislation, Battista said:

"Under John Lindsay we had Fun City and under Mayor Beame we had a bankrupt city. I'm concerned that a Koch administration may give us a Gay City!"

NAACP For FBI Chief

Where Does New FBI Chief Stand?

St. Louis federal Judge William H. Webster, 53, has been chosen by the Carter Administration to be the new head of the FBI. Most of the FBI's COINTELPRO (dirty tricks program) was aimed primarily against the right-wing. Thus, it is of some importance as to what the personal views of the new FBI chief are.

There has been some comment about Judge Webster's membership in two all-White St. Louis social clubs. He shrugs this off as some of the high society establishment groups which exist in every large city. It must be noted that St. Louis NAACP head Margaret Wilson said of Webster's selection "I think he's great!" Frank Ruppert, head of the St. Louis ACLU, says that he supports Webster's nomination. It should also be noted that Judge Webster made an important ruling in 1974 in favor of electronic eavesdropping.

National States Rights Party Chairman, J.B. Stoner, once defended a client before Judge Webster in which the prosecutor was black. Webster allowed the negro prosecutor to "lead him around by the nose," agreeing with all his requests and sustaining ALL his objections. Webster appeared to be weak and submissive in court, and that is the kind of man the powers that be in Washington would like as head of the FBI because he would be subject to their manipulation. We will closely monitor FBI Chief Webster's actions in Washington so that Patriots can judge him for themselves. It should be noted that Attorney General Griffin Bell has stated that there has not been one single political phone tap since he has been in office.

William H. Webster
New FBI Chief

Why You Need A Gun

GUNS SAVE LIVES

Chicago resident Carl Evener was shot and robbed in his home by two negro robbers only a year ago. He was hit in the stomach and almost died. Evener then obtained a gun and a license to carry it. Then on Jan. 16 two teen-age negroes broke into his apartment at 429 N. Central Ave. They struck him over the head with a chair and kicked him in the face. While he lay on the floor, cut and bleeding, Mr. Evener pulled out his .38 caliber pistol and shot negro Earl Bedell, 16. The other hoodlum Kevin Robinson, 15, fled but was later arrested. Carl Evener says he is not going to move but will buy a .357 magnum for future protection.

Carl Evener, face battered, but attacker was worse off.

New York's Queer Jew Mayor Forces "Sex Preference" on Police and Firemen

New York City's newspapers agreed that none would print any reports on Edward Koch's homo-sexual background. This was done after right-wing mayoral candidate Vito Battista of the United Taxpayers Party publicly charged that Koch's election would make New York a "gay city."

During the campaign Samuel DeMilia told Associated Press writer Carig Ammerman that he had information on an assault case Koch refused to press against a homosexual 12 years ago. This AP story was written in news form but suppressed through an agreement between all New York newspapers. Still the rumors spread and the Koch campaign assigned Jewess Bess Myerson as Koch's constant female companion during the race as a window dressing cover-up.

Candidate Mario Cuomo tried to bring out the truth by challenging Koch to debate him on a proposed city homosexual rights law. Cuomo sound trucks in some neighborhoods blared forth "Vote for Cuomo, not the homo!" Bess Myerson denounced the charges as "vicious, and scurrilous." The homosexual community threw their full support to Koch. The New York Jewish community turned out in its usually heavy numbers and were responsible for electing one of their tribe (Koch) mayor of New York City. No sooner had Koch taken office than he issued an executive order requiring both the police and fire departments to hire open and self-admitted homosexuals. Both the PBA and Fireman's Union have gone to court to obtain an injunction against this arbitrary order.

The order was drawn up by city attorney Jew Allen G. Schwartz. Richard J. Vizzini, head of the Fireman's Union said that homosexuals "should be excluded from the fire service. Firemen must live in very close quarters and serious problems could occur." It should be noted that in the Miami, Fla. vote on singer Anita Bryant's anti-gay rights referendum, only the Jewish community on Miami Beach gave the queers side a majority vote. The time has come for White Christian Americans to recognize which racial and political force is behind the national campaign to make queers a recognized new minority group with their own special privileges and rights.

Russian Workers Slaves

The Soviet worker has the lowest pay of any labor group in the industrialized world. Far from being a workers' paradise, any Russian who dares suggest a strike or work slowdown in protest over starvation wages and wretched working conditions can find himself doing life in a communist prison camp in the frozen wastes of Siberia.

Vladimir Klebanov, 45, was fired from his job and banned from future employment as a miner after he led a worker's group protesting abuses of workers' rights. He traveled from his home in the Ukraine to Moscow and told his story to Western journalists. After its publication, the KGB secret police arrested him and threw him in an insane asylum. On Jan 2 he was released after accounts of the story appeared in several Western newspapers. Thus we find communism to be the world's greatest enemy of the worker.

Blacks Have Whites Squirming

Negroes Hit "Little Rascals" & "Sambo's"

It is absolutely amazing how far negroes can go to stir up trouble where none previously existed. The NAACP in Des Moines, Iowa has demanded that KCCI-TV take the old "Little Rascals" short film series off the air. If anyone should protest it is we Whites, because the film depicts interracial socializing between White and black children which we oppose as did our forefathers.

NAACP leader James Rogers charged that the negro "Buckwheat" in the Rascals series is "stereotyped as superstitious, stupid and non-human. Electricity makes his hair stand on end and he is afraid to walk through graveyards and is subservient."

The "Iowa Civil Rights Commission" is loaded with radicals and has joined the protest against KCCI-TV's presentation of the series. Mr. Bill Hippee, station manager, said that no minority pressure group in any other state in the union had protested against the show and that he intended to continue showing it.

"SAMBO'S" MUST GO

Some years back two business partners, Sam Battistone and Newell Bohnett took the first name of Battistone and the first two letters in Bohnett's name for their fast-growing hamburger food chain. It is called "Sambo's." There are some 850 restaurants in 43 states with over 36,000 employees. How some black civil rights leaders say the name reminds them of Helen Bannerman's children's book, "Story of Little Black Sambo."

This book is actually pro negro but still blacks say they have been

"stereotyped".

They have demanded that the entire chain change its name or face a negro boycott. Thus far, William Wagner, Sr., company operations officer in Santa Barbara, California, says that they have changed the name in only four cities where most of their customers were negroes. Their new name is "Jolly Tiger", but that too may upset negroes because Tiger's are known to chase little black Sambo through the jungles in Africa and eat them.

It is an insult to the White majority that negroes expect us to jump to their every demand and whim. This situation is getting ridiculous. Soon we will have to ask the blacks to "please walk softly" when they walk all over us. The time has come for Whitemen to stand up and ACT LIKE THEIR FIGHTING WHITE ANCESTORS! How do you think Teddy Roosevelt would handle such outrageous demands?

News Media Promotes Interracial Marriage

Interracial Marriage Would Destroy the White Race

Let's get right to the heart of the subject. The greatest danger threatening the very existence of the White Race is interracial marriage. The White Race is the smallest minority in the entire world. We are only 1 out of 10 of the world's population. Colored genes are dominant at a 4 to 1 ratio over a White person's genes. This is the reason mongrel children you see on the streets from interracial unions always favor the colored parent.

All historians credit the White Race as being responsible for the development of civilization worldwide. At the very same time, every White nation in all history which mixed its blood (genes) with the backward, primitive, low I.Q. negroes of Africa have had their civilization destroyed. Perfect examples of this historical truth can be found in the downfall of India, Egypt, Carthage, Haiti and other multi-racial nations.

Press and TV Promote Mixed Marriage

Macon, Georgia's newspaper, The Macon Telegraph, carried a week-long series on interracial marriages in the community. They told how well such couples got along and how they overcame social barriers in Georgia. The Jacksonville (Fla.) Times-Union recently carried a similar series and so the story goes right here in the very heart of the Southland. It is disgraceful to report that some liberals now claim that interracial marriage is today more acceptable in the South than in the big cities of the North such as Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and St. Louis. These are areas under the greatest negro attack from the standpoint of crime and house block-busting.

This means that Whites must step up their campaign to discourage interracial couples by ostracizing them from White social gatherings and speaking out among friends and even in front of the general public. The decadence which comes from allowing mixed couples even to exist in our society is a threat to our race. They represent a growing cancer which can eventually destroy the entire White Race. This means the end of civilization, Christianity and our democratic ideals of individual freedom and liberty.

Natural Barriers Against Mixed Couples

Our forefathers established segregation laws designed to prevent White and black races from socializing and intermarrying. These laws were on the books until just a few years ago when an ultra-left Supreme Court threw them out. Hotels, theatres, restaurants, schools, swimming pools, beaches, dance halls, etc. were all required by law to keep the races separate. This is what has saved the White people of South Africa from being bred out of existence by the rapidly-growing black population.

Still today we have social taboos which continue to help us keep the black and White races separate. Just as the beasts of the field do not mix and mate, it is a natural instinct for our species to gravitate to its own kind. The following are barriers which have in recent years held down interracial marriage:

- 1) A White woman seen on the street with a negro is often thought to be a prostitute with her pimp.
- 2) White parents still will disown a child who dates a black. Even negroes will often not welcome blacks with White partners into their homes or social activities. This means the mixed couple is not welcome within the White or the black community, both of which are often hostile.
- 3) Many black women are afraid to date Whitemen because they are considered to be prostitutes.
- 4) Mixed couples are still the subject of "stares," hostile remarks, and even assault by Whites who still maintain their racial pride.
- 5) Their children are always regarded as negroes.

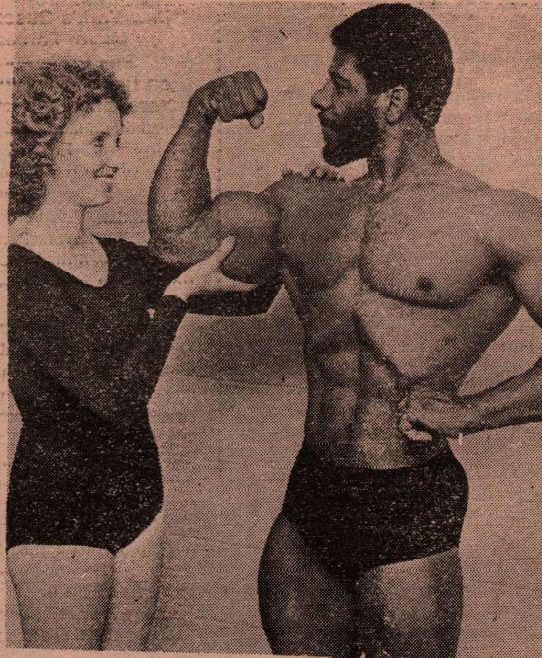

Black Women Protest

"Detroit Sun-News" reporter, negress June Brown Garner, writes that many black women cannot find black marriage partners and are left sexually deprived. She said the causes of this black male shortage was the large number of black men who are dating or trying to date White girls, and the huge number of black men in the nation's prisons.

Negro women cannot match the brains and beauty of the White woman and very few White men with a healthy racial attitude would lower themselves to asking a negress for a date. June Garner in her May 5, 1977 study of this phenomenon wrote that most White liberals and integrationists are hypocrites because they do not want their own sons or daughters to marry outside their own race.

June Garner exposed the violent anti-White attitude of the fanatic race mixers who are in the Carter administration today. She wrote that a White man high in the government said that interracial sex should be used to end the racial problem for all time to come. He told her that the final solution to the White Race would be for "the government to force every adult to marry and have a child outside his own race. This would end all the racism in one generation."

In other words mongrelize the White race out of existence for all time to come. It is our duty to combat this threat with all the powers at our command. Distribution of the Thunderbolt to the general public is

Interracial Degeneracy in Hollywood

In this shocking photo we see actress Tatum O'Neal, only 14 years of age. She is with Dwain Lewis, who the press describes as her "close friend and constant traveling companion." The picture was taken in England where Miss O'Neal is doing a remake of the film "National Velvet," made famous by Elizabeth Taylor. Tatum has in the past been photographed dating one of the young black bucks in the "Jackson Five" singing group.

Tatum O'Neal's father is the well-known actor Ryan O'Neal. That he would allow his daughter to date a negro at such a young and tender age is a disgrace and an outrage. If you want to join a national movement against race-mixing in all its evil forms, fill out and return the application form for membership in the National States Rights Party which can be found on another page.

one of the tools we have to awaken the masses. This is one of the few newspapers which takes an open stand for the PRESERVATION OF THE WHITE RACE. Also order our anti-race-mixing stickers which are listed on page 11. We receive letters from new people every day as a result of seeing such anti-race mixing warnings pasted up on the walls of their community. This is the action newspaper devoted to the survival of the White Race and we need your help in spreading the truth.

SIGN OF THINGS TO COME? Black Mr. America's White Wife

Madison Square Garden was the scene of the latest Mr. America contest. Believe it or not, it was won by Joseph Spooner, 29, a negro from the island of St. Lucia in the West Indies. He is not even a citizen and attends college at Rutgers University.

Spooner married a White girl from St. Louis who was Miss Eastern America in 1975. He states that he has no intention of returning to the West Indies and that because he has a White wife, he is eligible to become a U.S. citizen. Very few negroes who come to America on student visas ever return to their native homelands. Spooner says he would like to work in St. Louis as a labor arbitrator to help people gain higher wages. Is he talking about White people or blacks? Here is another couple who will be prominent in the news, gaining more publicity in favor of interracial marriage. This further undermines the purity of the White Race.

Gen. Daniel James

Negro General Retires

Negro Gen. Daniel James, 57, has retired as the first of his race to ever become commander-in-chief of the nation's air defenses. He once gained national publicity when he flew to Jacksonville, Fla., for a military ceremony and landed at the wrong air field.

Upon his retirement James said that he had worked long and hard to bring about racial equality in the armed forces. He says there is "less racism in the military today than any other segment of society." Perhaps this is why morale is at an all-time low in the military. James was once jailed for demanding service at an all-White officers club at Freeman Field, Seymour, Indiana. After President Truman ordered the armed forces racially integrated in 1948 they began promoting James over the many better qualified White officers. He was a showpiece negro, giving evidence to our officially approved government policy that negroes are equal to, or superior to, Whites. His retirement can only bring about a sigh of relief from those seriously concerned with keeping our Air Force on a "ready alert" to counter any future Soviet atomic sneak attack upon the United States.

Every Russian Communist Leader

Strange Marriages-Every Soviet Head was Married to a Jew

Yes, it is true. Every leader of world communism to date has had a Jewess for a wife. One would think that this would make an interesting story for some national magazine or syndicated column, but only here and now for the first time you can read the entire story.

Leonid I. Brezhnev's wife is Viktoria P. Brezhnev. On her 70th birthday, on Dec. 11, the Tass news agency gave Moscow's Associated Press a rare glimpse at communism's first lady. The report stated that Mrs. Brezhnev was active in the communist "International Women's Movement." The AP writer in Moscow, Mr. Seth Mydans, wrote that Mrs. Brezhnev "was born of well-to-do Jewish parents and is believed to have met her husband when both were students at the Dneprodzerzhinsk metallurgical institute and to have helped support him during his early career as a party functionary."

Please keep this point in mind, that Brezhnev's Jewish wife, and her family helped him to rise within the ranks of the communist party. Jew families did the same for other communist leaders who took Jew wives.

The A.P. report says that the Brezhnev's have three children. Their daughter Galina is in her mid-40's and is "flamboyant", and often seen racing around Moscow in her Mercedes. Their half-Jew son Yuri, 44, is deputy minister of foreign trade, and their other half Jew son Mikhail, 40, is a journalist.

Khrushchev Raised As A Jew

Before Brezhnev one Nikita Khrushchev was Premier of Russia. His wife also was a Jewess named Nadia Lazarovna. Khrushchev lived in a Jewish community in Mariupol and once considered converting to Judaism according to the "B'nai B'rith Messenger" of Oct. 18, 1957.

The same article on Khrushchev states that "his first love's brother was Lazar Kaganovich". He is the Jew who was the second most powerful man under Stalin throughout the bloody tyrant's career. For defending the Jewish community of Mariupol against anti-communist forces of the Czar, the Jews used their influence within the Communist Party to boost the political career of Nikita Khrushchev until he finally emerged as the leader of Russia.

Stalin's Jewish Wife Stalin Surrounded By Jews

When Lenin died in Jan., 1924 Communist Russia was ruled for the next six years by a triumvirate comprising Zinoviev, Kamenov, and Stalin - the first two were full-blooded Jews.

Stalin's first wife was Ekaterina Svanidze. She bore him a son named Jacob. He later married a Moscow Jewess and she committed suicide after being captured by the Germans during the war.

Stalin's second wife was Nadya Alliluyeva who bore him his famous daughter Svetlana who now resides in America. Svetlana was married three times-all her husbands were Jews! Stalin allowed all these marriages to take place. If he were anti-Jewish as some have held, he would not have allowed this. Svetlana's first husband was Grigori Morozov, who was a member of Stalin's Kremlin Guard. They had one son, Joseph. Svetlana's second husband was the Jew, Yuri Zhdanov. They had one daughter. This marriage ended in divorce, but Yuri continued to do well and was later promoted to Dean of Rostov University.

Svetlana's third husband was Michael Kaganovitch, the son of Stalin's second-in-command, Lazar Kaganovitch. Stalin at this time was married to Kaganovitch's sister Rosa. This marriage took place immediately after the highly questioned "suicide" of his second wife. Now Stalin had two marriage ties with Kaganovitch.

When Stalin died, his two top aides were Kaganovitch, head of all industry, and the Jew Beria, head of the Secret Police. They had been in power since the very earliest days of the most murderous regime in all history. When Svetlana Stalin found that Khrushchev had renounced her father she became frightened and went to the Chief Rabbi of Moscow, Rabbi Schliefer, to seek conversion to Judaism. By becoming a Jew, she would be protected by the privileged "chosen" of Moscow society. Rabbi Schliefer was alarmed and refused to ever see her again. After that she fled to India and then to America.

Lenin's Jewish Wife

Lenin did not believe in marriage, but his closest companion and recognized common-law wife was Kruyskaya Lenin. For 15 years she was called the "Mother Superior of the Russian Communist Party." The famed historian Robert Payne has written that Lenin himself was a half Jew.

JEWISH PAPER SAYS KHRUSHCHEV REARED AS A JEW

28-B'NAI B'RITH MESSENGER

— Friday, October 18, 1957

72-YEAR-OLD Chana Yankelevitz, now in Israel, remembers that he had been scared off this idea when he found out that circumcision was inescapable.

Once in 1913, Khrushchev saved the lives of 1,300 Jews. The local members of "The Black 100," the most vicious anti-Jewish element in Czarist Russia, were preparing a pogrom on the Mariupol Jews. Khrushchev organized his friends into a defense squad and when the blood-thirsty vandals assembled in the market square, Khrushchev led his squad, attacked and dispersed the mob of "The Black 100" before they could launch the massacre.

Over 40 years passed since then and Khrushchev the son of a Cossack blacksmith, became the most powerful man in Russia. His rise to power had been largely due to the material support given to him during his studies, first by the grateful Mariupol Jewish community and later on by his first love's brother, Lazar Kaganovich.

As a young man, at Mariupol in the Ukraine, Khrushchev was a poor turner's mate, boarding in the house of a Jewish cobbler where he also acted as a "Shabbath Goy."

In return, the cobbler's wife, Chana Yankelevitz, treated him to gefillte fish. Twice, during that period, she literally nursed Khrushchev from illness back to life. He even learned to speak and read Yiddish which he still commands superbly. His first love was Nadia Lazarovna, a Jewish neighbor's daughter. In order to be able to marry her, Khrushchev seriously thought of becoming a Jew.

Jewish Founders of Communism

It should be remembered that the original founder of communism was the Jew, Karl Marx, who was descended from a long line of rabbis. Much of the ideological foundation of communism found in Das Kapital was taken from the Jewish Talmud. (Read The Talmud Unmasked, available from The Thunderbolt at only $1 per copy.) Kerenky is the Jew who took power from the Czars and handed it over to Leon Trotsky, who was also Jewish. Trotsky was the first commander of the Red Army. It should also be noted that the very first official president of Communist Russia was the Jew Jacob Sverdlov.

During the entire period of Stalin's rule as "Party Secretary," the titular "President" of Russia was always the Jew Klimenti Voroshilov.

Jew Power Over Russia

From time to time stories go out that anti-Semitism existed under Stalin, Khrushchev, or even Brezhnev. This is impossible because all of these men were married to Jewesses and surrounded by Jews in the Soviet hierarchy. Two quotes of interest on this subject prove this point:

The Jewish Times of May 12, 1967, in an article by the Jew Peter A. Khassidi, states that "it would be unthinkable that Stalin should oppose his daughter's marriage to a Jewish husband."

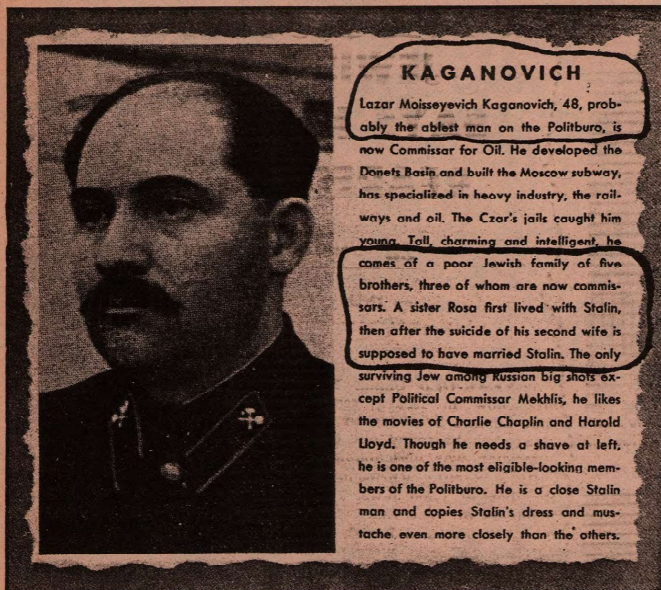

On the pro-Jewish stand of Leonid Brezhnev, the Zionist News Service of Dec. 15, 1977 reports Russia's doubling of the quota of Jews who are immigrating to the West. (Only Jews have the special privilege to immigrate from Russia.) The same ZINS report discloses that a high Jewish communist official has been allowed to immigrate to America. It states:

"Boris Rabbot, who is Jewish, is the highest-ranking Soviet official to be permitted to emigrate from the Soviet Union in recent years. As advisor to the Central Committee of the Soviet Communist Party, he had personal access to Leonid Brezhnev."

Rabbot told the New York Times that Brezhnev is really not a bad man. He is not a racist or an anti-Semite."

The reason we have the continuing propaganda bombardment in the press and TV to the effect that the Jews are a "poor, persecuted people in Russia" is to insure the total American economic and military support for Israel. The truth of the matter is that both Communism and Zionism are Jewish-founded political movements working together toward the very same goals. These include the establishment of international socialism, mongrelization of the White Race, the end of liberty and freedom with the establishment of the Marxist totalitarian state under United Nations world government.

Has Been Married To A Jewess

KAGANOVICH

Lazar Moiseyevich Kaganovich, 48, probably the ablest man on the Politburo, is now Commissar for Oil. He developed the Donetz Basin and built the Moscow subway, has specialized in heavy industry, the railways and oil. The Czar's jails caught him young. Tall, charming and intelligent, he comes of a poor Jewish family of five brothers, three of whom are now commissars. A sister Rosa first lived with Stalin, then after the suicide of his second wife is supposed to have married Stalin. The only surviving Jew among Russian big shots except Political Commissar Mekhlis, he likes the movies of Charlie Chaplin and Harold Lloyd. Though he needs a shave at left, he is one of the most eligible-looking members of the Politburo. He is a close Stalin man and copies Stalin's dress and mustache even more closely than the others.

The above excerpt is taken from Life magazine, July 14, 1941.

MOLOTOV'S wife is the sister of the Jew, Sami Karp, owner of the Karp Export-Import Co., Bridgeport, Conn.

SVETLANA MOLOTOV, half-Jewish daughter of Russia's vice-premier, was betrothed to Vassili Stalin when this picture was taken in 1951.

KAGANOVICH

One of the most frequent arguments used to disprove the Jewishness of Russia's present day leadership, strangely enough, revolves around Lazar Kaganovich. Propagandists are fond of pointing him out as "the only Jewish member of the Politburo," the suggestion being that since the Politburo contains only one Jew, it is plainly

The excerpt to the right is taken from Life magazine (July 14, 1941). It identifies Lazar Kaganovich as (1) "probably the ablest man on the Politburo"; (2) Stalin's brother-in-law; (3) "the most eligible looking member of the Politburo"; (4) a Jew. Facts like these are considered "anti-Semitic," are seldom printed by the American press.

not Jewish controlled. But this argument will not stand the light of day: it completely ignores the fact that both Premier Stalin and vice-premier Molotov have Jewish wives. And it conveniently overlooks the fact that the solitary Jew, Kaganovich, is doubly related to Stalin by marriage. Kaganovich is not

Jews Hold Privileged Position In Russia

Evidence - Jews Not Persecuted In Russia

Dr. Thomas W. Matthew, a negro surgeon in Watts, Calif., says that his recent trip to Russia convinced him that Jews are not persecuted there. He said that the Soviets did not have to "apologize for their treatment of Jews." He added:

"I can go on record as saying that the statistics Soviet Ambassador Dobrynin gave us on the number of Jewish people in the professional and technical positions show a high percentage of Jews in such positions. I would say that Soviet society is offering Jewish people more than American society is offering blacks."

Indianapolis News quotes former State Department official Richard T. Davies as saying that Soviet Jews receive "preferred treatment and continue to be eminent in the Soviet economic, journalistic, scientific, medical and cultural worlds, in numbers far out of proportion to their percentage of the population."

Mr. Davies backed up this argument with the Jew Sol Polansky, who worked at the U.S. Embassy in Moscow for three years. Polansky said: "Based on my own experience and travels in the Soviet Union, it would be an exaggeration to say that Jews are persecuted."

Report On Leading Russian Jews

Falls Church, Va. Saul E. Jofes, former international secretary general of B'nai B'rith (the secret Jewish businessmen fraternal group) said that Jews in Russia hold positions of prominence. Mr. Jofes visited Jewish communities in Leningrad and Moscow and other cities. He met with communist Jew leaders such as Aron Vergeles, editor of the Yiddish language magazine Soviet Heimland, Boris Y. Pischik, head of the Soviet Novosti Press Agency, and Vitaly V. Zhurkin, head of the Soviet Academy of Sciences. Jofes said that Jews are the best educated group in Russia and hold down a far higher number of professional positions proportionately than does any other nationality.

Certainly these statements are living proof that Jews should not be granted special privilege in immigrating from Russia to America under the guise that they are "political refugees." This is simply not the case and Sen. Kennedy and others should not be allowed to change our immigration laws to admit any and all Jews of the world into America under the pretext of saving them from "persecution."

LAZAR KAGANOVICH Was Ruthless Purger

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press Writer

Kaganovich had been Stalin's most ruthless purger, once known as "the Iron Commissar" of the Ukraine. Khrushchev prospered as Kaganovich's protege in the Stalin days, learning much from the crusty, Jewish-born revolutionary who was one of the toughest and ablest of Soviet administrators. After 1957 Kaganovich wound up as a building materials executive in the Urals. He turned 70 in 1963, became a pensioner and began writing memoirs

Gonorrhea Ravages Africa

The U.N. World Health Organization reports that venereal disease is out of control in the Central African Empire, Congo, Kenya, Sudan, Tanzania, Uganda and Zaire. Some 30% of the people have gonorrhea and in Cameroon it is as high as 40%. The U.N. report, with its usual bias, blamed White tourists and sailors from Western countries for the spread of the disease. This is impossible when V.D. is at an all-time low in America and Western Europe.

The truth is that since the White man was forced out of black Africa, medical facilities have all but collapsed. Also many superstitious negroes believe that it is a curse and seek witch doctors for a cure.

Israel's Excuses, Excuses!

The Zionist government of Israel is using every maneuver in the book to keep from making peace with the Arabs and returning occupied lands. On Jan. 23, Prime Minister Begin in a speech said that an article by a prominent Egyptian columnist compared him to Shylock, the greedy Jewish moneylender from Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice. There is no censorship of the Egyptian press as they have in Israel. Still Begin thought this was as good an excuse as any to once again refuse to sit down and bargain for peace with the Arabs.

Nuptials of Dictator's Daughter Cost a Reported $900,000

LONDON, July 15.—(AP)

Joe Stalin's favorite daughter, Svetlana, was reported today to have been married in Moscow amid a two-weeks show of splendor and flowing vodka.

The London Sunday Express and two Italian publications reported that the black-haired daughter of the Soviet Dictator had married Mikhail Kaganovich, son of Politburo member Lazar Kaganovich.

Svetlana, 27, had been married before. The three publications which reported the marriage did

ORKIN GETS 3 YEARS

Minority Power in Georgia

The Atlanta based Orkin Exterminating Co. is the largest pest control firm in the world. Jew Orkins are millionaires. They have acted in a disgraceful manner in fighting with one another for control of the Orkin fortune. Members of the family sought to have the elder Orkin, founder of the company, declared insane and incarcerated, so they could get hold of all his money.

Then came a real shocker when the grandson, millionaire William B. Orkin, was arrested for murder conspiracy. Billy Orkin, who is married, tried to hire a professional killer to murder local insurance executive Gerald W. Johnson. Orkin hoped to thus start up a romance with Johnson's wife, who was employed as his secretary. The "hit man" turned out to be a police officer who arrested Orkin after being paid $200,000 to murder Mr. Johnson.

Orkin remained free under $190,000 bond until his appeal was rejected by the Georgia Supreme Court. When it came time for Orkin to be sentenced by Fulton County Judge Osgood O. Williams, a great deal of pressure was brought to bear upon the judge. Some 110 persons (mostly Jews) wrote the judge to grant Orkin probation because after his conviction four years ago, Orkin donated some $300,000 to "charities," like the United Jewish Appeal.

Orkin's lawyer produced letters of character reference from notables such as Sen. Herman Talmadge, Jew Congressman Elliott Levitas, Jew State Ethics Commission Irving Kaler and others. Still Judge Osgood Williams found that "this case simply does not measure up to probation. In all my years of trying cases, hundreds of cases, this is the most senseless of all." With that the judge sentenced Orkin to 3 years in prison. Under Georgia law, 5 years is the most Orkin could have received. This editor (Dr. Fields) went to the same private military academy as did Billy Orkin during the 9th and 10th grades. I recall that he was of poor character and totally opposite to what the politicians' letters said in trying to influence the judge.

Orkin was a totally selfish and troublesome student who had no friends. His behavior resulted in his having to leave the school in the 10th grade. I'll never forget the day when Wrigley Fruit Chewing Gum came out with Juicy Fruit Gum. Billy Orkin came to school with a full carton. He told the rest of us that this was the best-tasting chewing gum in the whole world. We were then amazed when he would stuff all 5 sticks of a package in his mouth the same time. Just as soon as the maximum flavor was gone, he would spit out the giant wad of gum and stuff 5 more sticks in his

How Roosevelt Got Us Into War

The Final Secret of Pearl Harbor is the shocking book which details how U.S. Intelligence broke the Japanese code days before the bombing of Pearl Harbor. President Roosevelt withheld the plans of the attack on Honolulu because he wanted a disaster of such magnitude that Americans would give total support to his war plans, including the lives of our boys. The cutoff of Southeast Asian oil from Japan was the chief reason for the Pearl Harbor attack. Likewise the U.S. almost went to war against the Arabs when they cut off our oil because of our backing of the so-called nation of Israel.

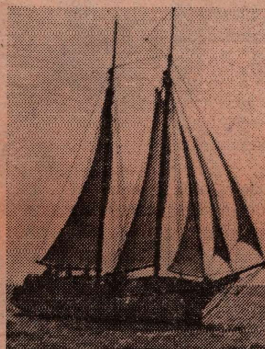

Little is known of the tricks Roosevelt and Churchill used to get us into the war. Just six days before Pearl Harbor Roosevelt gave super-secret orders for an outmoded 1941 two-masted wooden schooner named the USS Lanikai to sail into Japanese waters off the coast of China. Today retired Rear Admiral Kemp Trolley says that he was the commander of the Lanikai and didn't realize that he was being sent on a suicide mission. The ship was armed with one gun left over from the Spanish-American War and two World War I guns. Chief of Naval Operations Admiral Harold Stark has admitted that "FDR didn't want the bait ship to look too much like a naval man-of-war, because the Japanese might not attack." Roosevelt hoped that the sinking

COMMANDER of the Lanikai was now-retired Rear Adm. Kemp Trolley.

Ordered on FDR's suicide mission, might raise the American people to a fighting pitch. On Dec. 3, 1941 Roosevelt cabled Churchill that "It might be just a few more days until our support is given" for the war.

The day the USS Lanikai was supposed to set sail, the Japanese struck Pearl Harbor and gave Roosevelt an even better excuse to issue his long-planned "Day of Infamy" speech to the nation.

mouth. He looked like a big fat pig with his cheeks bulging. Billy Orkin never offered a stick of gum to a fellow student. Thus, he is long remembered by his fellow classmates.

Other Provocations For the War

The reason it is important that we learn more on how the U.S. got into World War II is so that we will realize how the communists were helped in conquering half of Europe and how the Jews were able to seize Palestine from the Christians and Moslems. Col. Charles A. Lingburgh put it very plainly in his famous Des Moines speech in which he said that it was the Jews, the Roosevelt Administration and the British government which were pushing us into World War II.

Noted Catholic historian Fr. Robert A. Graham has revealed declassified British Foreign Office records which show that a "lie factory" was set up in "Room 34" of a downtown New York City office building. This super-secret operation was run by the British "Political Warfare Executive." Some of the lies concocted included the following:

1) The Nazis wanted to destroy all religion.

2) The Pope had secretly told his bishops that Nazism was completely evil but that communism has some basic Christian values.

3) Roosevelt personally broadcast one of these blatant lies in a radio speech on Oct. 28, 1941, claiming that Nazi Germany wanted to "abolish all religions and take over South America."

Fr. Graham stated that the entire scheme was approved by Roosevelt personally in his attempt to get America to go to war against Germany, Italy and Japan. Because we helped to destroy these anti-communist countries, communism was saved and given half of Europe.

Teacher Pensions Ripped-Off

More Georgia Corruption

Pension funds are always being ripped off by the men in charge who quietly get under the table kickbacks. The Teamsters pension has been looted of millions of dollars by a small group of Jewish racketeers. Many are asking how the Georgia Teachers Retirement Fund ever considered "investing" over half a million in a negro-owned hotel. Georgia ex-State Senator Leroy Johnson headed the firm which at one time operated the "Atlanta Internationale Hotel," now known as "The Stadium Hotel." It is out of the main downtown business district and is practically in the middle of "nigger town."

No one in his right mind would build a hotel there and it has never had a profitable quarter. Sen. Johnson's unsavory past is all the more reason why the managers of the teachers pension fund should never have invested a dime in Johnson's hotel. Leroy Johnson was convicted on an income tax case on some $225,000 he received in devious ways. He was convicted, but freed from the luxurious Montgomery "Maxwell Air Force Prison" for privileged prisoners after serving only 36 days. Johnson was allowed to withdraw from the Georgia Bar rather than most powerful Jews, wired Carter complaining that his statement on "human rights" carried no reference to passage of the Genocide Treaty.

The Genocide Treaty is an international law which would ban any written or verbal criticism of any member of a minority group which would tend to "cause mental harm." In other words, it would end free speech and freedom of the press. Communist countries and the United Nations, along with international Jewry, have for years promoted the passage of the Genocide Treaty. America is one of the few countries which has refused to adopt this measure. It takes a two-thirds vote of those present in the Senate for passage. Sen. Sam Nunn of Georgia has stated that he intends to vote for the Genocide Treaty. Write your Senator on how he will vote and how you feel about the matter.

Africanize Christianity

Blacks Celebrate "Kwanza" Instead of Christmas

Africa is coming to America much faster than most people realize. The Chicago Tribune of Dec. 26 estimated that 35,000 blacks in the city celebrated "Kwanza" rather than Christmas. This is a little-known East African pagan holiday. Negro Jawanza Kunjufu of Chicago's New Concept School claimed the celebration goes back 15,000 years but this cannot be documented since no recorded history has ever been kept in Africa. It involves ancestor worship and lasts for seven days. The celebration was introduced in America in 1967 by black nationalist Ron Karenga. He said that it was time negroes stopped celebrating the White Man's holidays and have one of their own. It is interesting that in Brazil, with a larger proportion of blacks than the U.S., primitive African tribal rites and customs, including voodoo, have been introduced into Christian church services. Some so-called churches can no longer be considered truly Christian institutions.

We Still Can Win This Fight

Greatest Crisis In Nation's History

Dear Patriotic American:

Everything seems to be falling apart within our nation. The corruption, decadence, and non-resistance to the forces undermining this nation are moving forward with ever increasing momentum. When you look at everything which is detrimental to the survival of the Nation in one sweeping glance, you can visualize the tremendous dangers we face. Let's look at them all together.

1) The surrender of the Panama Canal is a continuation of our no-win policy which led to the military disaster in Vietnam. Communists using Cuban troops are on the verge of taking over all of Ethiopia and Somalia and Washington is doing nothing (as usual) to help the anti-communists.

2) The White birth rate in America has fallen below "population zero" and we are no longer reproducing our own kind. At the same time the "colored" population is skyrocketing through their high birth rate and legal and illegal immigration.

3) The government continues to eat away at individual freedoms with the passage of the Kennedy Revised Criminal Code which gives the Federal government the power to ban meetings, demonstrations and public protests. It has passed the Senate and is now before the House. The Genocide Treaty has passed the Senate Committee and can be brought up for a vote at any time. This would ban criticism of any member of a minority group which might tend to cause him "mental harm."

4) There is growing lawlessness and crime by negroes in America. They are killing, raping and assaulting thousands of White Americans every year. Wherever there is a flood, power blackout or snow emergency, negroes quickly take to the streets and with impunity loot every store in sight. Thus our system of law and order crumbles before our very eyes.

We Must Act in Unison - NOW!

These are what I consider the four most dangerous signs of the internal collapse taking place within our nation. There are only a handful of elected officials in Washington opposing this situation. They include Sen. James McClure, Sen. Jim Allen, Sen. Jake Garn, Sen. Jesse Helms and one or two others. As to Patriotic organizations which go into the race problem and actually face up to the Jew and negro issues, you only have about three groups of any significance. The National States Rights Party is the largest of these groups.

There is a great tendency for our people to sit back and wait for "George" to save the day. The problem is that "George" is not going to do it and it is up to you and me to get away from sitting in front of our TV sets and spend our valuable time getting the message out to the public. The best way to do this is by distributing extra copies of the Thunderbolt. Everyone tells us that for interesting and truth shocking news on current events, The Thunderbolt is the most effective publication they have found for awakening new people. It is urgent that we increase the number of people we reach through a quick circulation campaign. Do you realize that if we could make a big jump in our circulation during the next three months we would be strong enough to have real influence and actually be the deciding factor on such vital measures as the Genocide Treaty and Revised Criminal code. Will you join with me in a drive to greatly increase circulation of The Thunderbolt by the end of March. Let's set that as a goal. You will be pleased to know that at present our paid circulation is at an all-time high. Let's jump it up even higher so the impact will increase our influence RIGHT NOW!!

Race Scientists Fight To Be Heard

Australia's Melbourne University invited two of America's leading "race scientists" to address the student body. They are Prof. Hans Eysenck and Prof. Arthur Jensen. Both hold that their research proves that the White race is superior to the negro-racial races.

Dr. Edward R. Fields
Editor, The Thunderbolt

Some 30 instructors sought to have the lectures cancelled. The university refused. When Prof. Jensen arrived for his talk 200 screaming radicals shouted him down. The motley group was led by a negro-aborigine militant student named Gary Foley. Jensen had to make his talk from the basement of an auditorium over closed circuit TV. He said that he was "disgusted" that a small minority could deny 1,200 students the right to hear his talk.

Gary Foley said that: "We are against free speech for people with racist views." Several fights broke out and the police arrested one of the so-called "International Socialists." Jensen said it was obvious that those who preach equality have no "tolerance" for the views of others.

Even Anti-Nazi Attacked

Prof. Hans Eysenck left Germany in 1934 because he opposed Hitler's views. Still he maintains that the races are indeed "different." In his monumental book, "Race, Intel-

How You Can Work for Victory

A) Buy extra copies of The Thunderbolt to give to your relatives, friends, and co-workers. You can also just leave them on the front porch of every home in your block. Use the handy form on the back page to order extra copies.

B) You can purchase gift subscriptions for interested friends for the low price of $4.00 for a six months sub. Only send in gift subs of those who already lean our way and are most likely to renew their sub at the end of the six month period.

C) Make up a mailing list of fellow patriots or interested sympathizers and send it to us along with 35¢ for each name. We will immediately mail them a Sample Copy of The Thunderbolt. We gain many new readers from this particular program.

D) Clip and mail us the names and addresses of those who write right-wing letters to the editor of your local newspaper. Some papers print their full addresses. If they do not print addresses often, you can look them up in the telephone book. Their zip code is not necessary for us to make a mailing to them. We will send such people a sample Thunderbolt without charge to you if we deem their letter indicates a good potential subscriber.

Why not choose one or more of these methods to help us make the big jump forward in Thunderbolt circulation. This would have a tremendous impact in the work we could accomplish. Here are some of the possible effects. We could double the attendance at meetings, get twice as many people into the streets for demonstrations, pour twice as many letters into Congress on vital subjects, have double the present number of campaign workers to help elect Right Wing candidates to public office. Such an increase in circulation would feed upon itself as these new converts to the cause themselves go to work following the same system to gain new people for this struggle. Work hard on this during the next 60 days and we will let you know the results.

Against Whites

Fined for Aiding Rhodesia

Dallas, Texas "Gardner-Denver Co." has been fined $25,000 and had its export license revoked for two months for selling mining and drilling equipment to Rhodesia. The U.S. Commerce Dept. held a star chamber hearing with no real court judge or jury. A so-called "administrative law judge," a Jew named Bertram Freedman, levied the penalty. While export licenses have been revoked in the past, this is the first time a heavy fine has ever been imposed. Carter is determined to put the economic squeeze on the White people of South Africa. At the same time, Carter is allowing open trade with Communist European countries and wants to open such conducts with Cuba, Vietnam and Red China. Thus Cartercommunism continues to march on.

ligence and Education," published in 1971 Eysenck states that genes are responsible for 70-80% of an individual's intelligence. He said that environment causes 20 - 30% of the lower mental capacity of negro-racial types. The professor said that all standard I.Q. tests given American negroes relegate them on a plain 15 to 20 points lower than that of the average White from a similar economic background.

For years we have been bombarded with all sorts of propaganda in the movies, TV, churches and schools that all of the races of the world are equal. Now that the truth is coming out proving that the races are indeed NOT equal at all, the liberals are the first to jump up and scream that such views must be suppressed.

Let Race Truths Be Heard

England's famed Nobel Prize winner in medical research, Sir Andrew Huxley told the "British Association for the Advancement of Science" that scientists had a right to explore the theory that blacks are intellectually inferior to Whites.

Sir Huxley stated, "if racial characteristics are indeed inherited genetically then preaching that they are not will lead to expectations among the less well endowed which can never be fulfilled."

Huxley said that he abhorred the verbal and physical attacks upon physicist William B. Shockley and Prof. Jensen by those who in the past have demanded the right to instruct students on communist and racial equality theories with little or no evidence that their views are sound or true. Those who wish to study this subject further should read two highly informative and documented books on this subject. They are "I.Q. and Racial Differences" by Dr. H.E. Garrett, PhD and "Study in Racial Realities" by Carleton Putnam, PhD. They sell for only $1 each, available from "The Thunderbolt."

National Epidemic Of Murder

U.S. Ravaged by Negro Crime

"Sawed-Off Justice" is the title of a book by Ex-FBI agent Lynn Franklin on crime in America. He declares on page 164 that "most of our violent street crime is committed by blacks. Of the last 50 cases I worked on, 49 were Negroes and one was a Mexican."

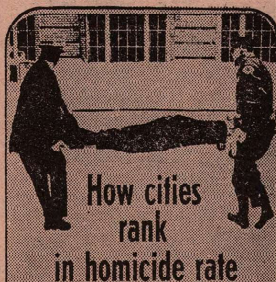

Franklin states that he remarked to his black FBI partner Eddie Dickson that: "More than 80% of the violent street crime seems to be committed by blacks." Dickson replied that, "Lynn, when did you get to be such a liberal? You know damn well it's more than 90%." When most FBI agents know that over 90% of all street crime is committed by blacks, it is a shame that they are forced by the so-called Justice Department to always side with the blacks against the Whites when there is racial trouble.

But the full truth lies buried. Over and over we are told by the daily press that negroes are the most frequent victims of black crime. Actually, while 85% of all muggers are negroes, 85% of all their victims are Whites. Author Jim Bishop, writing in the July 7th edition of the San Francisco Examiner, reports that "black shopowners save themselves by hanging signs in the front windows proclaiming themselves to be 'Soul Brothers.'"

Dr. Donald Lunde of Stanford University says that murder is on the increase in America and that you have 1 chance out of 10,000 of being murdered before the end of this year. Compare this with England which does not have near the number of negroes we do (as yet), and their murder rate is about 1 in a million per year. We have 30,000 police trying to keep the coloreds under control in New York City while the far larger city of London has only 4,000 police.

Washington, D.C. is 80% black and one would think that negroes bear the brunt of crime by their fellow tribesmen, but that is not the case. The Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) annual report appeared in the Washington Star of October 24, 1977. It revealed that its $10 million, 13 city study discovered that Whites are the most frequent victims of crime. It found that young White males are more likely to be the victims of street crime in Washington because they more frequently leave their homes after dark.

One of the most shocking aspects of this frightful menace lurking in our streets is that at least 50% of the Whites robbed will also suffer bodily injuries. Household burglary is substantially higher in White neighborhoods because black criminals know that the value of "Whitey's" loot is worth more.

All this explodes the idea that negroes themselves are more likely to be victims of crimes committed by their fellow blacks. The nation's crime figures increase with each passing day and the only response from our politicians in Washington is more poverty aid for the blacks - WHICH WE WHITES MUST PAY FOR - THUS WE ARE ROBBED AGAIN!

There is but one single answer to this problem and that is to solve the negro threat to our civilization once and for all. The National States Rights Party has a BACK TO AFRICA program which is detailed in a 10,000 word document. Remember that Abraham Lincoln helped resettle 20,000 blacks in Liberia and wanted to send all of them back after the Civil War. Now our time has come to complete the good work he began. Write today for a free copy of the NSRP "Back to Africa Program."

Mrs. Delores Hunter, school teacher

Teacher Attacked at Free Breakfast

Denver is another city where assaults on teachers are driving competent instructors out of public schools. In New York City there is a shortage of 2,000 teachers because they are resigning their jobs in mass. The reason being that since the school term began last September there have been over 1,000 attacks on teachers, and all were committed by coloreds. In Denver, Colorado, Mrs. Delores Hunter, 36, was assaulted in the cafeteria while negroes were being fed a free breakfast under the federally-funded program. She noticed one negro carrying a club and asked him for it. He said that "you can have it" and hit her over the head. Knocked to the floor, two other blacks joined in and kicked and beat Mrs. Hunter. She was taken by ambulance to the hospital for treatment of injuries suffered on her head, shoulders and legs.

Glenn Battle bludgeoned Miss Evans

Miami's Worst Brutality Case

Darby, England was the home of Helen Evans, who made the mistake of taking her vacation at Miami Beach. Little did she know that negro Glenn Battle had slipped into the women's rest room at the Greyhound Bus Depot. Battle knocked Miss Evans to the ground and stomped on her face with the heel of his shoe. He ripped off her bra and tore at her clothing. Then he took the few dollars she had in her purse and fled.

Police reported finding her lying in a pool of blood. Sgt. Robert Sullivan said that her face and hair were so crushed and matted with blood that they could not tell if she was White or black, male or female, young or old. For weeks she remained in a coma and few thought she would live. Today she is partially paralyzed and in a wheel chair.

During Battle's trial, Jew psychiatrist Arthur Stillman said that the negro was "high on LSD and acutely insane at the time and should not be held legally responsible." The jury didn't buy that story and the monster was sentenced to 20 years in prison.

Negroes Cheer Suicide Attempt

Hartford, Conn. found a 16-year old White girl in state of hallucination due to taking LSD on the steps of the Immaculate Conception Church. She slashed her wrists and threatened to cut her throat with a razor blade. A crowd of 300 negroes gathered. They shouted: "Do it, sister, do your thing, right on!"

Police were afraid to rush the girl because she threatened to cut her throat. Negroes threw bottles at her because she hesitated in killing herself. One whisky bottle hit her on the head. One police officer told UPI that "this is disgusting, they acted like a bunch of animals." Fr. Joseph M. Devine of the church said that the throng acted like they were at a football game. Finally the girl fainted from loss of blood and was rushed to the hospital where she was saved.

Ft. Lauderdale witnessed what Harry Smith and his wife Selma were two young negro burglars. They forced a solitary area in West Broward. Ord smashed Smith's right cheek with teeth. Then they shot him in the nicking his lungs, liver and hitting car over him, breaking most of his Smith's undergarment, tied it around then threw him into a canal alone.

Some hours later two hunters washed up on the side of the canal.

His wife of 27 years died instantly broke her neck. The black beasts strike again. Mr. Smith made a real from nightmares, damaged lungs paralyzed left hand.

Her Dreams Are Killed

Detroit's Wayne State University is located in one of the worst sections of the city. Students are constantly being victimized by negro criminals. Tawnya Sesi's prospects for the future looked very dim. The 19-year-old girl had given birth to a baby. Then her boyfriend ran off. Forced onto welfare, she then met Stephen Picinini. He fell in love with Tawnya and said he would marry her when he graduated from Medical School. Steve then began supporting his new-found family. He had medical experience from his army duties and sought a job as an ambulance driver at Detroit General Hospital. Steve was turned down because they were only hiring negroes. Thus Steve got a minimum wage job at a nearby hotel. Still his future looked bright because he had been accepted into Wayne State Medical School. Then disaster struck.

Steve and Tawnya were strolling with the baby at the edge of the athletic field when two negroes approached and demanded his money. "Hey, I have a baby here and we don't have any money." They grabbed for the baby's bag and Steve would not let go. Then one negro fired a single shot into his heart. Steve Picinini fell to the ground and looked up at Tawnya and said "I'm going to die." He rolled over dead! The negro killers got exactly $5, two bottles of soda pop and some diapers. Tawnya later said: "I don't see any future for my baby and me. All my dreams are dead now." The vicious murderers are still on the loose, seeking new innocent White victims.

All his victims were elderly and over the age of 13. The judge sentenced him to life in prison. The only trouble is that there are no more white people in our streets.

Homosexual Murders

Washington's Iwo Jima Park, right next to Arlington Cemetery, is a notorious meeting place for homosexuals. It is also a place where negroes gather at dusk to attack and rob queers. Police reported 103 arrests in a recent two-month period. Homosexual Ronald Pettine, 32, a former aide to Rep. Morris Udall, was found beaten to death in the park in what police called the most sadistic attack they had seen in years. There have been no arrests.

"Blind That White Honky!"

Washington, DC is a capital of violent black crime and one of the most dangerous cities in America. Robert Messick, 41, father of three, found out just how bad it is. Mr. Messick is a bus driver and had reached the end of his line where there is a 5-minute wait for the return trip. Two young negroes climbed aboard and one leveled a gun at him and asked for all his money. He gave them the $10 in his billfold. They tried to break into the fare box, but failed. Then one black said, "I ain't gonna take a rap for no 10 bucks - blind that White honky!" With that the other negro threw acid into Robert Messick's face.

A woman in a nearby apartment called the police. Mr. Messick credits their quick action in washing out his eyes with saving his sight. A nurse remarked "Thank God, it's a miracle he didn't lose his eyesight." There have been no arrests in the case.

Police said that one of her attackers was an illegal negro alien from the West Indies. Another flower of the White Race sacrificed on the Jewish altar of racial equality.

Skull Crushed with Rock

New York City: Dr. Herbert Lorrington, 60, was found slain and robbed in his office. A huge 40-pound rock was in a paper bag and had been used to beat the doctor's head to a pulp. Police arrested a man described as a negroid hispanic Puerto Rican as the chief suspect. He was seen running from the office with fresh blood on his clothes.

"Give Us Money or Burn!"

It is little wonder that over a million Whites have fled New York City since 1960. The apartment of Jack Geller, 83, and his wife Rose, 76, was invaded by three negro youths, the oldest being only 15. Armed with a knife and a hammer, they demanded the couple's valuables. When they refused, Mr. Geller was tied to a mattress which was then set afire. His wife gave the youths jewelry and $220 in cash. The blacks fled and Mrs. Geller put out the fire, but her husband suffered third-degree burns. The police later arrested the black youths. They were sent to a juvenile home and their names were withheld because of their tender age.

Retired Man Killed

North Carolina's Marine Camp Lejeune is the scene of much negro crime because blacks from all over America are brought here to learn how to use weapons and how to kill. (No wonder our ancestors banned them from the Marines until after the end of WWII) Negro Private James Bush was from New York City. He stole a car at the base servicemen's club and ran it into a ditch east of Richlands, near the home of Kirby Marshburn, 65. He went to the home of Mr. Marshburn and attacked him with a knife. Bush slit Mr. Marshburn's jugular vein, but he didn't die right away. He then stabbed him through the heart. Bush then took Marshburn's car. Later he was arrested with fresh blood on his clothes back at the base. Oh, what a price White Americans pay for allowing the brutal negro to remain in America!

Ancient Rites Of The White Race

May Day at King's Lynn, Norfolk

May-Pole Dance — A Fertility Rite

Visitors and tourists who watch with nostalgia the May-queen and her maidens on the village green dancing round the maypole, or the morris-men pacing out their steps, may sigh for a past when life in England was simpler and merrier. But the ladies of the village, deciding the details for the dresses of the May-queen and her attendants, or perhaps organizing the bonfire committee, might be taken aback to learn that they were participating in fertility rites whose origins stretch far back beyond the beginning of Christianity.

When Christianity first came to these mysterious islands, the early fathers faced the almost insuperable task of weaning the people away from their age-old beliefs and practices. That they succeeded only in part and very slowly is evidenced by the numerous rites and ceremonies that are still practised as traditions, though in a much garbled form, even today. In the same way that they built their churches within the boundaries or close by the pre-Christian sacred sites, so they infiltrated the rituals and ceremonies of the people by declaring that these dates were saints' days and making them known as holydays.

Due to the natural wit and resilience of the locals, they were not entirely successful, though the manner and intent with which the rites are practised today have lost all vestiges of their original power.

One ceremony that has survived with a certain spontaneity in some country districts is that of the first day in May. In many villages and towns in England the May Day celebrations take the generally recognized form of a maypole set up on the village green, around which dance the young people, while the May-queen and her attendants sit at the foot. Though picturesque and reminiscent of the popular idea of Merrie England, this form of May Day celebration was largely introduced in the last century in an attempt to revive the mediaeval holiday. In those times nearly every town and village had its own maypole, which was a permanent fixture and a focal point of the May Day celebrations. Today a few villages have such a maypole, which is refurbished from time to time with garlands and flowers and is periodically repainted, often with a spiral design in red and white, colours that appear not infrequently in these remnants of the ancient rites.

Further back in history before the permanent maypole was adopted, the custom was for the young people of the village to go out to the woods on May Eve and, having paired off to spend the night in 'pleasant pastimes', they would then meet again by the light of the dawn to cut down a tree and set it up in the village to be decorated. Another variant was to return with fresh green branches which were used to decorate the houses for the ensuing festivities. These customs symbolized the bringing to each house and to the village of the fertilizing spirit of vegetation. Very often there was a procession that went from house to house carrying green boughs in order to bring the revived spirit of spring to the crops and cattle, and they would be thanked and rewarded by the householder with a suitable gift of produce. The chief participant in these ceremonies was the May-king or queen, who symbolized the fructifying spirit of the spring vegetation.

Though the celebration of the May Day festival is a dying tradition, that of morris dancing seems to have received fresh impetus of recent years. When or why morris dancing started, nobody knows, but it is as much a part of the English landscape as are the white horses on the Wessex hills. Morris dances are traditionally performed outdoors in the spring or summer, sometimes with May Day festivities, and they were often performed in the churchyard or even in the church itself. The

*We've been rambling all the night,
And sometime of this day;
And now returning back again,
We bring a garland gay.*

*A garland gay me bring you here;
And at your door we stand;
It is a sprout well budded out,
The work of our Lord's hand.*

This song was sung by the children of the villages of Essex (and may even still be sung) on the first day of May as they carried their garlands of may blossom from door to door, as seen in this woodcut. Similar customs are observed in other parts of Britain.

The eve of May Day was the ill-famed Walpurgis Night when the power of evil was abroad. This was the time to light the Beltane fires on the high places and to dance around them crying 'Burn the witches, burn the witches'. Loud noises were also used to drive these malevolent creatures away, such as the horns being blown in the picture.

sixteenth century writer Phillip Stubbes tells how morris dancers sometimes entered the church during a service, and how the congregation would 'mount upon the formes and pews to see these goodly pagcants'. At this time it was still customary for the people, after divine service was finished, to sing and dance in church on certain holydays and festivals. The Horn Dance of Abbots Bromley is performed only once a year, and may be even older than the morris dances. It would seem to hark back to the age when man was a hunter, and a dance wearing animal skins and horns was a prelude to a successful chase.

In the Derbyshire villages there is a tradition of dressing and blessing the wells, either during May or at the Midsummer festival. This is a pre-Christian propitiation of the water spirits when the local population would bring greenery and flowers to the well. Today elaborate pictures with a Biblical theme are formed from petals, beans, stones and other natural materials pressed into large trays of damp clay which are then erected over the well. There are about fourteen towns or villages which do this, the best known being Tissington which has five wells decorated.

Another custom of pagan origins is known as church clipping, which means to clasp or embrace. The parishioners clasp hands and walk round the church in a clockwise direction, or they form a circle and advance and retreat three times. This is sometimes thought to be descended from the Roman festival of Lupercalia because that too included a sacred dance round the altar. But dancing was an integral part of the pre-Christian religion in these islands long before the Romans invaded. In Painswick, Gloucestershire, clipping the church is still carried out, followed by an open-air clipping sermon, delivered from the base of the church tower. The ceremony was still practised in Birmingham in 1800, and at many other churches throughout the nineteenth century. But only a few revivals remain today.

Blessing The Farmer's Crops

The fathers of the Church also adopted the custom from much earlier times of blessing the crops. This occurs in different parts of the country on Rogation Day, which falls before Ascension Day near the beginning of May. This ceremony is usually combined with the more recent one of beating the bounds, when the boundaries of the parish are walked round and certain standing stones or other landmarks are beaten with sticks. It is said that a few centuries ago, small boys were beaten at each mark point in order to impress upon them the boundaries of their parish.

A custom that seems to be unique is that practised at the village of Shebbear in Devon, where, on the evening of 5 November, the men turn over a large stone, which is 6 feet long and 2 feet by 4 feet in girth. Failure to turn the stone would bring disaster on the village, so the legend goes. This stone rests near the churchyard wall, due east of the church and south of a large, ancient oak tree, and is of a composition not found in the locality. The probability is that the church was built on a pre-Christian sacred site, as so many of our churches were, and this stone is either a remnant of a circle, or a standing stone that has now fallen.

Another tradition that has no generally accepted origin is that of the ball game, several versions of which take place annually in different parts of the country. On 6 January in the village of Haxey in Lincolnshire, there is a traditional struggle between two teams for a rolled-up piece of leather termed the Hood. The players wear top hats decorated with flowers, and at one time wore red jerkins, though now they settle for something red in their dress. Before the game starts, one of the participants with a blackened face, known as the Fool, stands on an old stone outside the parish church and recites a story relating how the custom was started in the thirteenth century. While he does this the strips of paper which hang down his back are set alight, and paper and straw are burned at his feet. Then the villagers go to the top of a hill and the game starts. The setting alight of the Fool and other details seem to suggest that the origins of this ceremonial game go back far beyond the thirteenth century, perhaps even to a time when human sacrifice was still practised in this country.

Spectacular aerial view of The Cerne Abbas giant in Dorset has long been associated with Spring fertility rites. Above him on hilltop can be seen the enclosure where maypole celebrations have been held for centuries, and there was a general belief that if a barren woman were to spend the night sleeping on the body of the giant, she would then be able to have children.

In Scotland, 2 February is a day when ball games are played. At Jedburgh all work stops, schools have a holiday, and a swaying mass of humanity fills the streets, all grappling for a small ball in an attempt to carry it to the other end of the town. In Cornwall the first Monday in February is the feast day of St Ila, the patron saint of St Ives, where the children play a traditional game with a silver ball from 10.30 until mid-day. A similar sport takes place between the villages of St Columb Major and St Columb Minor, also with a silver ball. Even more strenuous is the Hallaton bottle kicking game in Leicestershire, which is a rough free-for-all, the object of each team being to get three small wooden barrels, the 'bottles', into the territory of the respective teams, which consist of men from the villages of Hallaton and Medbourne. Before the start of the game there is also a traditional scramble for pieces of hare pie on the site of Hare Pie Bank.

Fire always played an important part in the pre-Christian rituals and there are probably more vestiges of our Sun/fire-worshipping ancestors in our present calendar and traditional observances than any other aspect of pagan rites. Midsummer Eve has always been a fulcrum for the Sun worshippers. Until recently, the villagers of Leusdon, Devon, would on this day roll a cartwheel down the slopes of the nearby Mel Tor. If they had continued to cover the wheel with pitch and bind straw around it before setting fire to it and sending it bounding and spinning down the hillside, an obvious symbol of the flaming Sun disc, as their forefathers undoubtedly must have done, then perhaps the custom would not have died out so rapidly. In many parts of Austria and Bohemia this custom was still being enacted in the last years of the nineteenth century, and in some remote areas may even still be done today.

Washington White House Easter "Egg Roll" is actually ancient White Race Fertility Rite.

Allied to this custom, there are others in which objects are rolled down the sides of hills. On Whit Monday on Cooper's Hill, Birdlip, Gloucestershire, a large cheese is set in motion, and as it gathers momentum the local boys race after it in an endeavour to catch it and claim the prize. In various parts of the country Easter is still a time for pace egging, when eggs dyed in bright colours are rolled down hillsides. As the egg is a symbol of fertility and is still used in Easter confectionery, the pre-Christian connexion need not be argued.

A central figure in the May Day festivities was Jack-in-the-Green, who was completely covered by a bell-shaped wickerwork frame in which were twined branches, leaves and flowers. He was taken round the village with music and song, and at the end of the ceremonies was symbolically drowned or otherwise killed.

Study White Culture

To return to the midsummer fires, we note that in the early years of this century there was a revival in Cornwall of the custom of lighting a chain of bonfires from one end of the county to the other, with a suitable ceremony spoken in the Cornish language, while in the village of St Cleer there seems to have been a continuous tradition for thousands of years of a huge fire ablaze on Midsummer's Eve, into which flowers and an oak sickle are cast. The earliest recorded name of the parish was St Clair, and this is thought to be derived from Sin Clair meaning the Holy Light, a confirmation of the antiquity of the Midsummer fire.

Importance Of Fire In White Race Rites

Before our calendar was changed, 12 January was New Year's Eve, and on this date at Burghead in the north of Scotland, Burning the Clavie is enacted. Here a blazing tar barrel is paraded round the village and each house presented with a piece of burning wood. The barrel is then taken to a high place where it is used to make a large fire; the embers from the fire are in great demand, as they have been for countless centuries from similar ritual fires across Europe. Kept in the house, they were considered to protect it from lightning, and planting pieces in the fields would ensure fertility and a fine crop. In Burghead, those who obtain brands from the fire carry them home to kindle a New Year Fire in their own grate, a practice which has its roots in the pagan Need Fires, which were lit only at such times of distress as an epidemic of the cattle. On these occasions all fires and lights in the neighbourhood were extinguished and the Need Fire was kindled by means of friction of wood, thus it was untainted. The cattle were driven through the smoke, and the people jumped across the flames three times. Then the ashes were taken to be scattered on the fields, and live embers were taken home to rekindle the hearth fire.

Two other dates on which fire festivals were held are the eve of 1 May, which was Beltane, and the Samhain festivities on the eve of 1 November. Of the former there seems to be no trace left, though many other May Day celebrations have survived in various forms. The only remnant that we may have left from the once widespread Samhain fires is that of Guy Fawkes Night on 5 November. In Lewes, Sussex, there is a large celebration organized by Bonfire Societies, which has a strong early seventeenth century anti-Catholic flavour (Guy Fawkes was a Catholic who in 1605 made an unsuccessful attempt to blow up the King, James I, and Parliament by hiring a cellar under the Houses of Parliament and filling it with barrels of gunpowder). Other towns in Sussex also celebrate the night with great enthusiasm, and indeed the length and breadth of England seen from the air must present a vision of long ago, as dusk falls and the tiny pinpoints of light blaze up first in twos and threes, then dozens, until there are hundreds of gleaming beacons blazing across the land. Although we are thousands of years away from our ancestors, we still respond to the living, dancing flame.

Baxley Faces Extradition To Oklahoma

Below reproduced as evidence from "The Oklahoma City Times," January 31, 1978.

Coats Investigates Baxley

By James Johnson

Oklahoma County District Attorney Andrew M. Coats said today he is investigating statements made in Oklahoma by the attorney general of Alabama for a possible perjury charge.

Coats said he is investigating statements Alabama Attorney General William Baxley made at a Jan. 10 hearing when he appeared as a character witness for Louis J. Roussel, a Louisiana financier seeking to purchase the United Founders Life Insurance Co.

The district attorney said Baxley also is considered a leading candidate for governor of Alabama this year.

"We are checking for a possible perjury charge, although it is still under investigation," Coats said.

"We have gotten a lot of material from the Oklahoma Insurance Department which we are going through at this time."

Baxley in a hearing before special hearing commissioner Phillip Redwine was asked whether he had business dealings with Roussel.

Coats said that under prodding, Baxley said he was involved only in one bank loan to him.

"But the information we have received is that there was a substantial number of financial dealings between Roussel and Baxley,"

Coats said.

The district attorney said the investigation now is centering on verifying the transactions detailed in the information presented to him by State Insurance Commissioner Gerald Grimes.

If convicted, Baxley could face up to five years in the Oklahoma State Penitentiary.

Grimes originally had disqualified himself from conducting the hearing on whether Roussel should be allowed to purchase United Founders.

However, after Redwine issued a ruling approving Roussel's proposal, Grimes objected and announced he would appeal the ruling.

On Friday, Oklahoma County District Judge David M. Cook issued a temporary restraining order delaying the takeover.

Cook was to conduct a hearing later today on Roussel's motion that he vacate the restraining order.

Meanwhile, officers of United Founders have asked to intervene on the side of Grimes in halting the sale as approved by Redwine.

However, it was expected that Grimes' status to protest would be challenged by Roussel because of the insurance commissioner's previous self-disqualification.

Bill Baxley May Soon Be In Jail

On this page we reproduce important news release from Oklahoma. Alabama Attorney General Bill Baxley is working for a syndicate in New Orleans. We have proof that they let him have over $120,000 from Louis Roussel, a well known underworld figure who is tied in with the Mafia in New Orleans for the international Jew gangster Meyer Lansky who operates out of the Singapore Hotel in Miami Beach. We will detail all this along with photo copies of Bill Baxley's checks to the New Orleans money syndicate in the March issue of The Thunderbolt.

Alabama's outlaw Attorney General, Bill Baxley.

Baxley is so in debt to the mob that they are able to order him to do their dirty work and represent Roussel in their attempt to grab control of legitimate insurance firms in various states. Once the mob gains ownership of an insurance company they confiscate all its assets and then bankrupt the company. The stockholders and policy holders lose everything.

They sent Bill Baxley to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to represent them in their attempt to buy out an honest insurance company. It is now charged that Baxley lied, and perjured himself, when he testified for the Roussel interests. Now they are about to indict Baxley and return him to trial in Oklahoma where he could receive as much as five years in prison.

Bill Baxley has used his office as Alabama Attorney General to give prestige and an air of legitimacy to the efforts of the syndicate to take over reliable firms.

The reason Bill Baxley had Bob Chambliss indicted for the 1963 Birmingham church bombing was to coverup the felony charges he knew would be pending against him. Baxley believed that Jew and negro groups would be so beholden unto him that they would be able to give him immunity and protection from his criminal operations with the New Orleans underworld. This has not worked out the way he planned and Baxley may soon go to jail.

One respected Alabama observer said that the only way Bill Baxley can avoid going to prison is to plead insanity and have himself committed to Alabama's Bryce Mental Institution. This he could easily do because he is well known for his crazy antics in Alabama. More on Baxley's rapid downfall in the next issue of The Thunderbolt.

Califano Orders More College Integration

Since Pres. Carter took office, forced race-mixing has greatly accelerated. Joseph A. Califano, Secy. of HEW has ordered Georgia, Virginia and North Carolina to speed up integration of colleges. North Carolina is considering refusing federal funds rather than submit to this blackmail.

Califano does not take into account the fact that a massive influx of blacks into White colleges would lower educational standards and increase campus crime. At the same time, blacks would be hurt because more of them would flunk out of school of academic testing were held at the present level.

Califano charged that White "racism is the nation's chief problem. It ravages black people from the cradle to the grave. The problem of race still dominates the areas of education, employment, health care and housing." Carter may be from Georgia, but he and his Jew-controlled Administration are doing more to harm the security of the White people in America than any former president.

Why Pvt. Eddie Slovik Was Shot

The widow of Pvt. Eddie Slovik is trying to have his record expunged as the only American soldier executed for desertion during W.W.II. This has revealed an interesting situation. During the time of the "Battle of the Bulge" the U.S. Army was faced with a rash of desertions.

Rabbi David Max Eichhorn testified in the Slovik appeal that a Jewish deserter was originally chosen as the one to be executed as an example to other soldiers on the fate dealt cowards. When General Dwight Eisenhower learned that the "cautionary" execution would be a Jew, he quickly rescinded that order, and requested that another "sacrificial lamb" be chosen. He feared that the execution of a Jew would result in the organized Jew community accusing him of "anti-semitism." Thus Pvt. Slovik was picked to take the Jew's place. Thus we now know the real truth about how this tragic victim was picked to save a Jew from the firing squad.

John Birch Society

I went to one of the John Birch Society meetings last month and to me it stunk. There were lots of mixed-breeds present and that is something I am against. One Chinaman, some South American mongrels and a couple of Jews were there.

I mentioned this and was shunned by some of the so-called Patriots there. They all knew I supported the NSRP and I handed out some of the anti-race-mixing stickers and a couple of Thunderbolts.

Dr. Roy Brown Builds NSRP In Texas

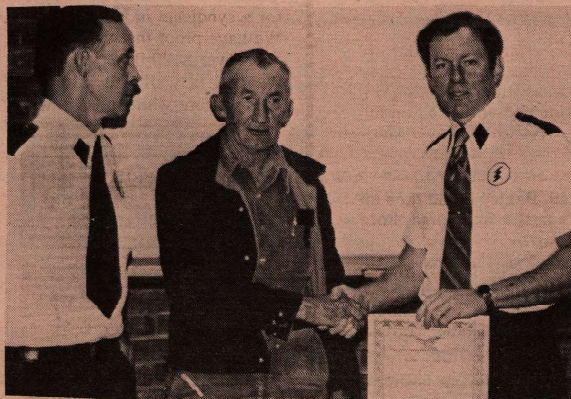

New Victory for J.B. Stoner Over Bill Baxley

On this page we reproduce a news article from the Marietta Daily Journal which describes the victory for J.B. Stoner. Alabama Attorney General Bill Baxley had our National Chairman indicted in a case he had nothing to do with. Stoner has filed suit in federal court for FBI records from 20 years back (in 1958) which will prove he was living in Georgia on the day of the blast.

Bill Baxley has sought to make himself a "national hero" among negroes and Jews for persecuting Mr. Stoner. Baxley had hoped that this would be an effective cover-up which would stop three different investigations into his own criminal activities.

The information which has already come out on Baxley has destroyed any chance he may have had of being elected Governor of Alabama. Now he is fighting just to stay out of prison and it looks like this is a losing fight. Baxley had hoped that powerful Jews in the Carter administration and in Alabama would intervene in his behalf and quash the investigations into his syndicate activities just because he was persecuting White people.

It is expected that Baxley will be indicted any day now and will be forced to resign his office. Regardless, he will no longer be in office if and when they are able to extradite J.B. Stoner. In the meantime we are gathering so much data on the case it should eventually be dismissed because Alabama at the time of the bombing of the civil rights headquarters.

NSRP Winter Campaign

Despite the worst winter in history, the National States Rights Party has continued its activity drive. It is unfortunate that we were forced to cancel several meetings in the Mid-Western states but they will all soon be rescheduled. We have concentrated mainly with activity in the Southern states.

Texas, Comanche County, was the site of a huge "Farmers Strike" meeting. National States Rights Party speaker, Dr. Roy Brown, was invited to speak on the courthouse steps. He informed the throng that it is the Jews who control farm products once they leave the farm and the middle man who is making most of the profit. The Jew Michel Fribourg personally owns Continental Grain Corp. (There are no stockholders.) Fribourg is one of the richest Jews in the entire world; a multi-billionaire. He buys most of the farmers' grain, stores it, and then sells it at gigantic profits.

Dr. Brown distributed reprints from The Thunderbolt which detailed how middle-men Jews like Fribourg have for years ripped off farmers. Dr. Brown wore the farmer's official strike cap and was given a very warm reception. Farmers came from as far away as Kansas and Oklahoma to attend this Farm Strike meeting. Comanche county is one of the two counties in Texas which do not allow a single negro to reside within their all-White communities.

Dr. Brown On Dallas TV

Dr. Roy Brown has been very active in Texas and recently represented the NSRP at a Patriots Conference in Houston, Texas. He spoke to the assembled crowd for 45 minutes explaining the policy and program of the NSRP. The meeting was covered by TV channel 8 from Dallas and thus thousands in that area heard Dr. Brown's dynamic message.

Augusta, Ga. turned out a fine crowd to hear Dr. Fields speak last month. A guest organization brought some of their members and all agreed this was one of the most enthusiastic meetings held recently. The filmed interview with John Tyndall, head of the National Front in England was shown.

North Carolina is a very active NSRP state. We were a bit slow in receiving the photo on this page of Dr. Fields presenting a Charter to one of the new chapter officers. These are all very active Patriots and we look forward to being up their way again very soon. This new NSRP Chapter was established by Mr. Harold Sumrell and Kenneth Poole. We are grateful for their loyal support in building this Whiteman's political party.

Stoner Again Avoids A Trip To Alabama

By MARY CALLEN
Staff Writer

Tuesday was a two-flag celebration day for white supremacist J.B. Stoner when Cobb Superior Court Judge Howell C. Ravan granted him another 60-day delay and opened wide the doors to a Georgia Supreme Court appeal in Stoner's fight to prevent being extradited to Alabama.

Stoner's maroon coat was stuffed with two Confederate flags at Tuesday's hearing which ended up with the Marietta attorney being granted a delay so he could testify before the Washington House committee on the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Although Ravan agreed that Alabama authorities had established a bona fide case for legal extradition for Stoner, the latest delay could mean months before Stoner is returned to face charges in the 1958 bombing of a Birmingham, Ala. church.

Stoner maintained the FBI has stymied his attempts at proving he was in Georgia at the time of the bombing.

It was Stoner's contention that by appearing before the House committee, which subpoenaed him earlier this week, he could gain access to the files he expects will clear him.

Stoner, the head of the States Rights Party, charged that the FBI, through an unidentified agent, and a Birmingham police officer, conspired to entrap him with the alleged plan of killing King.

Ravan apparently agreed that Stoner would be better off by appearing before the House committee before he went back to Alabama and granted the delay.

Gov. George Busbess signed the extradition papers before Christmas, although Stoner and his attorney, L.S. Cobb maintain that the governor's actions were improper.

WORLD REPORT

INTERNATIONAL RIGHT WING ACTIVITY

Australia: Senator Glen Scheil called for the government to separate the nation's negroid Aborigines from the White majority to prevent downbreeding. He endorsed the racial policy of apartheid used in South Africa and said that it could help save Australia's White stock. This caused Prime Minister Malcolm Fraser to dismiss Sen. Sheil as a minister in his Conservative Party cabinet. Sheil said most people agreed with his views and he would continue to speak out.

Rightists Elected in Greece

The National Front Party in Greece won 7% of the vote in the Nov. 20 elections. Under the proportional representation this entitles them to 5 members of Parliament. This is the first Right Wing victory in Greece since the six-year long "Colonels' Regime" was toppled in 1974. That was the military junta which saved Greece from a communist takeover. The head of the Greek National Front is Stepanos Stephanopoulos who was a prime minister in the Colonels' government. He and his followers suffered much persecution and intimidation after they fell from power, but now have made a remarkable comeback. The people once again see the spectrum of communism threatening their nation.

France To Deport Negroes

The French government has announced plans to deport the 1 million negroid Algerians residing there as non-citizens. They report this is necessary to lower both unemployment and the crime rate. The Algerians will be given free boat tickets and $2,500 each for returning home. This should encourage Americans to adopt similar measures to repatriate ALL blacks in America back to their native habitat in the jungles of Africa.

Mrs. Hermine Ryan in Jail

The Dusseldorf, Germany war crimes trial has now dragged on for over two years. Day in and day out 14 defendants (none are Germans) have to listen to the lies and abuse of an unending stream of Jews from Israel and Russia. They have accused the former prison guards of participation in the mythical killing of 6 million Jews.

National States Rights Party supporters gave money to the "Patriotic Legal Fund" which aided Mrs. Ryan's defense. Attorney J.B. Stoner and Ray Reimer have visited her and her lawyers in West Germany. Last month Mrs. Ryan could take the abuse no longer and stood up in court to denounce her accusers as liars and pigs. For this her bail was cancelled and the ailing elderly lady was thrown in jail. We demand that this inhuman persecution of innocent anti-communist people cease and that Mrs. Ryan be released immediately. We will keep you informed on these events.

Whites Fight Back

Italy: Two leaders of the "National Right Wing Party" were shot and killed by Marxist radicals. On Jan. 8, in retaliation, 25 Rightists gathered near Rome's famous Appian Way and threw gasoline bombs into the offices of the Communist Party. They then shot down three Reds who fled the burning building and then set fire to 15 of their cars. No one was arrested. A vicious war to eliminate the Right continues in Italy as the communists seem on the edge of taking power.

Holland: Negro immigrants from former Dutch colonies in South America and Indonesia are responsible for 90% of all crimes of violence in the Netherlands. Recently black squatters took over vacant residences in a suburb of Amsterdam. White home owners saw that the police would do nothing and took matters into their own hands. They forcibly threw the blacks out onto the street and warned them never to return. The incident was censored by the daily press so as not to encourage others to take similar action against undesirable colored immigrants.

South Africa: The Jewish News Service reports that a left-wing Jew candidate for the Province Council was dragged from his auto and severely beaten by two young Whitemen. He is Godfrey Isaacson of the Marxist Progressive Party. Isaacson has been speaking out for black rule and says that one caller warned that he would be shot if he spoke at another public gathering.

U.S. Army Falling Apart

ERA - Women in the Military

Many Senators and military leaders agree that America must end the volunteer army at once and return to the draft. This is the only way we can cut the negroes back to 14% of the force. Passage of the ERA is one of the chief reasons why the draft has been held in abeyance. It is recognized that the drafting of women on an equal basis with men would be made mandatory by passage of the "Equal Rights Amendment." Very few parents are anxious to have their daughters drafted into a negro dominated army.

It should be kept in mind that women will have to train, sleep and fight right alongside the men if the ERA is adopted. This is one of the touchiest points of the ERA that its proponents do not want discussed. On this page is a photo of a young White girl in the army being browbeaten by a negro drill instructor. Would you want your daughter to have to submit to such torment? Today women make up some 7% of the army, up from 1.1% in 1970. We oppose adoption of the ERA and oppose mixing of the sexes in the armed forces. The time has come for common sense to prevail in making our military an effective fighting force.

Military Becoming Black

Morale and discipline among the armed forces is suffering as the proportion of blacks in the military steadily increases. Congress has been concerned ever since the release of the Edward Scarborough report Minority Participation in the Department of Defense.

Negroes make up 14% of the U.S. population, but today have become 22% of our armed forces. They should become 40% by 1980 and will soon constitute a black army run by White officers. Scarborough's report shows that the volunteer army has failed in that it will soon become a low I.Q. force made up of negroes from a poor environmental background. Black officers' performance grades are consistently 10 points lower than those of whites. Pentagon officials are afraid that blacks would make "unreliable soldiers in countries of color, such as Africa, the Caribbean, Panama Canal, and in their civil role to back up the National Guard in the event of a civil disturbance."

The Scarborough report further states that "overrepresentation of blacks in the armed forces is the chief cause of race tensions, management problems, and black hooliganism." It is said that when blacks reach 30% of the military, this will be the "tip point" in which White enlistment will rapidly drop. It was also stated that negroes who are later rejected have learned such "lethal skills as the use of small arms, rifles, grenades, explosives, and hand-to-hand combat. Such military rejects add to the domestic crime problem and further overburden the workload of law enforcement agencies."

The U.S. Armed Forces are in their weakest position since Pearl Harbor. Unless the separation of the races is reinstated, our military capability will continue to crumble. With the might of Soviet Russia growing, time is running out for our defense forces. The time has come for us to scrap the false ideology of racial equality and place the best interests of the nation first. Our military was segregated through World War II and integrated after that. As a result, we have lost our last two wars. We cannot afford to lose the next one.

provided special booklets filled with propaganda material for the brainwashing program. Is it any wonder that White servicemen are disgusted with the military and only look forward to the day they can get out? Also, the placement of a Jew to rule the occupation forces in Germany is another insult to the German people.

Commanders of USAREUR Major Commands and Assigned Units and Activities (to Company level)
Heads of Staff Offices, This Headquarters

1. The annual observance of the birthdate of the late Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., is an important and meaningful event for countless Americans. Doctor King combined direct non-violent mass action with an appeal to his followers for understanding, even love, for those who opposed human and civil rights for everyone. This great American leader inspired many with his dream of American equality. It is a continual source of hope and encouragement that millions now choose to honor his memory on the anniversary of his birth rather than on the anniversary of his assassination.
2. I encourage all commanders to provide appropriate memorial ceremonies or services in honor of Doctor King, Sunday 15 January 1978 Operational requirements permitting, the services may be held during normal duty hours.
3. All chaplains in the United States Army, Europe, have been provided a special booklet of memorial service/ceremony materials.

Ordered To Honor King

Few people realize that the commander of the U.S. Armed Forces in Europe is the Jew Gen. Michael S. Davison. With headquarters in Frankfurt, he issued an order for the observance of the birthday of communist agitator Martin Luther King, Jr.

Note that Davison refers to King as a "leader inspired." He calls for "memorial services" for King to be held during duty hours, meaning that all service men must attend. Also, he has

“Legacy Of The Melting Pot”

By Attorney Drew L. Smith

225 Pages

The only book giving the full story on the Kennedy Immigration Law of 1965 and how it has resulted in a flood of non-White immigration which is inundating America. Drew Smith shows how the White Race will end up being a minority in its own homeland unless this vast tide of blacks, Asians and South America mongrels are not stopped from pouring across our borders. Today two thirds of all arriving immigrants are non-White!
